Approval of Minutes

- Jackie made a motion to approve the minutes as presented, Natalie seconded, none opposed.

Treasurers Report – Robin DeLorenzo

- Robin was absent but sent a message that there had been no transactions since the last report. Account balances as follows
 - Checking Account: $4,350.68
 - Paypal Account: $742.75
 - Director's Fund: $348.50

Director's Report – Jason Rose

- Anne See sent a message that we will probably see a check from the Tri-City Americans next week.

Director's Report (Continued)

- Jason sent a message that upcoming event dates had been updated.
- The New York trip was a success, next trip would be 2018/2019 school year.

President's Report – Jackie Marin

- Anne See is willing to help with the awards invites.

Old Business

- Natalie states that the dry cleaners couldn't guarantee that the poly-stitch would come out during dry cleaning. She has been trying to converse with the creators of poly-stitch to ask their opinion. She will continue to try and report her findings.
- Robin sent a message that the custom designed Brax cups would cost $500 for 200 cups.

New Business

- Jazz wrap-up will be held at John Dam Plaza with a possible barbecue.
- Drums Along the Columbia
 - DATC stated that we have a check from them that has never been cashed. It has been long enough that a new check would likely be required.
 - Hopefully tickets will arrive before the next DATC meeting, Shirts will be $10 with a V-neck for the ladies and crew neck for the men.
 - They stated that it is very important for the RHS school principal to be aware of our involvement with DATC.
 - They are still looking for a school to host Golden Empire.
 - Some groups are requesting to stay a second night.
 - Becky Chapin will be our RHS representative to host our DATC guests.
- Becky Chapin will continue to chair the awards night next year despite her daughter no longer being in a music program.
- A suggestion was made to sell pre-orders of the Senior slide show.
- Becky Chapin requested funds for awards night, but did not have an exact amount that she needed, but should be able to provide the total in about 2 weeks.
- My Fan Club T-shirts will probably roll out with the marching band packets, summer 2017.
- Further Bomberopoly door-to-door sales will be considered.

Open Discussion

- Becky needs pictures for the slide show.
- Jackie will follow up with her Aunt about the cake.

Adjournment

- Jackie moved to adjourn the meeting at 7:23 PM, Mark Brown seconded, none opposed.
